Warm greetings, Tauck friends!

"Xin chào" welcome to Hanoi!

I am absolutely delighted to begin this 16-day journey through Vietnam, Cambodia, and Thailand with you. My name is Xavier Brunelle, and I have the pleasure of being your Tauck Tour Director for this adventure. You can simply call me X it makes things a little easier!

I hope you will find comfort at the Sofitel Legend Metropole Hanoi, an iconic landmark where French colonial architecture, Vietnamese heritage, and more than 120 years of history come together in a living symbol of the city's transformation. The hotel offers several dining options, each providing its own way to discover the local culture. I have also put together a selection of restaurants and cafés around town for you to explore, along with a curated Google Maps list to help you find your way. Simply scan the QR code at the bottom of this page.

Eating out in Hanoi can be a wonderful and generally safe experience when you choose carefully. You can follow my recommendations, ask the hotel concierge for advice, or look for busy food stalls where a steady flow of customers means fresh food is being prepared regularly. In Vietnam, one of the most delightful ways to begin discovering a country and flirting with its history is through the taste of its food.

The Metropole itself has a fascinating story to tell. If you have the opportunity, I highly recommend joining the hotel's historical tour, which takes place each afternoon and must be booked in advance through the Concierge desk.

In this welcome package, you will find your itinerary, the guest information form, the Vespa tour waiver, menus selections, and additional information to help you make the most of your time in Hanoi. Should you need any assistance or further information, please do not hesitate to contact the hotel's Majordome (Concierge) or reach out to me directly by email or WhatsApp.

A Journey to Remember

Ahead of us lie busy days, new experiences, unfamiliar flavors and fragrances, and a rich mosaic of cultures and histories. We will encounter stories of resilience, traditions that have endured for centuries, and perspectives that may stay with us long after we return home.

As with any journey, our schedule may occasionally change along the way. Flexibility is part of the adventure, so expect the unexpected! My role is to take care of the details, anticipate challenges, and manage the unexpected so that you can relax and enjoy the experience. You are here to discover, learn, taste, explore, and make wonderful memories. Let me take care of the rest.

Bring your curiosity, your adventurous spirit, and an open mind. Together, we will make these 16 days more than just a journey through three beautiful countries. We will make them a shared experience, full of discovery, connection, and memories to cherish. Always be prepared to embrace the unexpected, those are often the real memories that says….

I look forward to traveling with you!

Warmly,

Xavier (X)
Your Tauck Tour Director
